DOCTORAL TRAINING WORKSHOPS

December 06, 07, and 08 2022

Introduction

Within the schedule of the 2022-2023 academic events initiated by ISILC Laboratory (Interdisciplinary Studies in Language and Culture), Dr Kerboua Salim (President of the 2020-2021 CFD and Head of POLICA Research Unit) and Prof. Hoadjli Ahmed Chaouki (President of the 2019-2020 CFD and A2LA Research Unit) organize a series of training workshops for doctoral students. Academics from the university of Biskra and other different universities of Algeria (Batna 2, ENS Constantine, Khenchela, Oum El Bouaghi, Tlemcen, Skikda, M'Sila) will give focused lectures and will hold workshops in Research Methodology and Research Writing.

Objectives

The principal objectives of the upcoming training days and workshops are

- to consolidate doctoral students' background in their respective fields of research and to provide them with some tips pertaining their doctoral research, thesis writing, and future projects
- to consolidate doctoral students' critical analysis, and critical thinking and writing
- to allow students present and explain their research, its progress, and the eventual obstacles they have been facing so far
- to consolidate students' ability to formulate arguments and defend their academic and scientific standpoint.

Format

Workshops are intended to be interactive. They shall consist of short focused lectures followed by/ accompanied with answers/ questions and discussions with teachers and students.
